

All about Coreleader Biotech

Established in January, 2007, Coreleader Biotech Co. Ltd. (CLB) is a ISO 13485 as well as QMS certified MFG of hydrophilic wound dressing products by TFDA, USFDA and KFDA. Aiming at global market, CLB focuses especially on the hemostasis and chronicle wound care dressings covering both clinical use as well as the OTC.

Coreleader's R&D department collaborates closely with Taiwan Textile Research Institute (TTRI), Medical and Pharmaceutical Industrial Technology and Development Center (MPITDC), Taipei Medical University, I-Shou University and other key medical research branches in Taiwan to acquire advanced technology that can be applied to its product development. With the support from those recognized MD, academics and renowned world leading consultants, Coreleader has developed products with proven quality as well as biological safety. All its products have been tested and accepted by the market. Furthermore, the company has a team which masters market dynamics that helps to catch up the market trend of clinical healthcare product development. It allows us develop novel products to meet the demand from the dynamic healthcare industry.